Title: Damaged Journal

Author: Filberto
-----

I hide here in the corner and leave this small journal in hopes someone finds it and can help me!

I left the other day for some supplies for my retirement home, and when I returned I found what I thought was my cannon adjusted. I thought nothing of it, crawled inside and fired myself off, but landed in the middle of a group of ruffians! They were all unkempt and smelled worse than pigs, and dragged me into the Inn here. They demand me to tell them where the Tuning fork is, but I refused - told them they will never find where it was hidden! They have decided to take me to their leader, but now sit at a table trying to solve some riddle.

Please, to whoever finds this journal, save me!
